Hello! I'm Mia...

I was born in Virginia, in February (Ronald Reagan is my birthday mate!) I do anything I can to keep my hands busy like...playing my guitar! I love art, makeup, drawing, anime, Tumblr, hair dye, and in general a lot of things.

I am currently 14 years old. I've been playing, singing, writing and performing music for the past 8 years. In other words, "These are a few of my favorite things".

Building a career in the music business as a performing artist is my focus. I am a serious artist. That's why I'm training for my career with vocal lessons, guitar lessons, and co-writing sessions.

In addition, I regularly attend music industry events such as ASCAP Expo, Tom Jackson's Boot Camp, and Taxi's annual conferences. I am also a member of several different music organizations and receive regular mentoring and guidance through these organizations. When my opportunity comes...I'll be READY!

I perform about 20 dates a year, go to school full time, take lessons and I support Autism Awareness.

My most recent accomplishments are:

1. Juggling my calendar!
2. Winning a prize for some Autism Awareness art I created!
3. Being on Channel 9 WUSA with my friends from Rockshop Studios!

Thank you for your interest in me and my dreams. Let's make this happen!!!!
